The AMC is seeking a Signage Captain!

AMC2020 - June 25th-28th, 2020

The AMC has been a place where people converge from across the country to share skills and strategies for transforming our world through media, art, and technology. The Allied Media Conference works at the intersection of many social justice communities: youth leadership, queer and transgender liberation, environmental justice, disability justice, transformative justice, radical people of color anti-violence, healing justice, prison abolition, decolonization movements, anti-poverty movements, radical art, intergenerational movement-building, immigrant justice, media justice, community media, open-source technology, education for liberation, and many more.

Role Overview

The Signage Captain will work in collaboration with the AMC’s Director, design team and logistics team from May 2020-June 29th, 2020 to execute the conference’s signage and wayfinding plan.

This role is a total of 50 hours in the lead up to and throughout the Allied Media Conference weekend of June 24th - June 29th, 2020, to set-up, maintain, and teardown Allied Media Conference event visuals and to generally maintain high standards for the visual presentation of the conference environment, including the following tasks:

- In the lead up to the conference, work with Allied Media Projects communications staff to understand run-of-show for the set-up, maintenance, and teardown of event visuals. “Event visuals” includes items such as banners, flags, signage, wayfinding markers, and other decor.
- Have access to a vehicle for moving between conference facilities or other locations as necessary, and transporting smaller event visuals items. Certain expenses for gas and parking will be reimbursed.
- Organize event visuals in the Allied Media Projects office in preparation for the Allied Media Conference.
- Coordinate transportation of event visuals to conference facilities.
● Set-up event visuals according to run-of-show document.
● Maintain a good appearance of event visuals throughout the conference weekend.
● Teardown event visuals at the close of conference weekend and coordinate the transportation of event visuals back to the Allied Media Projects office.
● Manage a team of volunteers to assist as needed

Role Details and How to Apply

This is a contracted position with the Allied Media Conference. The Signage Captain will receive $22/hr to complete approximately 130hrs ($2,860 total) of work including meetings and intraconference support. The Signage Captain will begin work early-May 2020.
